Standard Terms and Conditions

The limited warranty set forth on this extended warranty is provided by Locktec Australia Pty Ltd (here on known as Locktec) with respect to the Fujitsu scanner and the original purchaser (customer). With the optional 2 (Two) Year Warranty Upgrade on top of the factory one year return to base warranty. Locktec warrants that the scanner shall be free from defects in materials and workmanship excluding consumables for a total of (3) Three Years on parts and labour. At its option, Locktec will repair or replace at no charge excluding consumables Fujitsu scanner products which prove to be defective within the warranty period. This limited warranty shall not apply if the scanner has been damaged by unreasonable use, accident, negligence, improper packaging during shipment or modification by anyone other than a Fujitsu authorised service technician or by any other causes unrelated to defective materials or workmanship. To receive in-warranty service, a defective product must be delivered, prepaid, to the Locktec service centre only no later than (2) Two Weeks after the end of the warranty period. Locktec is responsible for freight and insurance for products returned to the customer.

We highly recommend that you insure the shipment as Locktec is not liable for damage in transit.

Locktec has the right to ask for proof of purchase; failure to supply proof of purchase when requested may jeopardise the warranty. In addition, a Return Authorisation (RA) number must be obtained and be clearly displayed on the shipping container. To obtain your RA number simply refer to www.fujitsu.com.au/scansupport and refer to the hardware support section. All delivery costs or shipping charges to return defective product under the warranty policy must be prepaid. Locktec is not responsible for any damage to products if they are shipped to us in non-original packaging. Locktec is not responsible and assumes no liability for any loss or damage occurred during shipment. Insuring product for value is the responsibility of the purchaser. Repackage the scanner in its original packaging or in a sturdy cardboard box with sufficient packing foam. Items physically damaged in transit are NOT covered by warranty. Defective parts or a defective scanner will be repaired or exchanged for comparable parts of equal value. EXCEPT FOR THE EXPRESSED WARRANTY STATED ABOVE, LOCKTEC AUSTRALIA PTY LTD MAKES NO OTHER WARRANTIES, WHETHER EXPRESSED OR IMPLIED.

Appendix B

Onsite warranty is not a practical option for the fi-7160/ fi-7260 Series Scanner.

- It is not practical to provide documentation and training to personnel at every site for a single scanner.
- The scanners are built extremely compact and require an intimate knowledge of the units to perform maintenance.
- The scanners are compact in size and low weigh which makes them ideal for overnight transportation.
- By the time a field technician would be able to attend the scanner on site, diagnose the problem and order the appropriate parts and then return to fit those parts a tested known good scanner could have been delivered to the customer and a operator would be able to exchange the unit as no technical expertise is required for this procedure, full telephone support would be available.

*Locktec Australia Pty Ltd is Fujitsu's authorised service provider for the fi-7160/ fi-7260 Series scanner within Australia, third party repairers do not have access to factory support services, local support services, documentation or warranty replacement programs.

Customers who purchase third party warranties will be turned away and not provided with support outside the standard factory warranty.
